

support though a variety of charitable works both domestically as well as internationally. For the past century, the Knights have provided an insurance program for widows and orphans of its deceased members. Additionally, the Knights have raised substantial funds to assist mentally challenged and disabled individuals. Most recently, they have worked along with Catholic Relief Services to raise funds for the victims of the devastating tsunami that hit Southeast Asia in December.

The patriotism and positive influence of the Knights is recognized every morning by students reciting the Pledge of Allegiance in classrooms across the Nation. In 1954, it was the Knights of Columbus who petitioned President Eisenhower and Congress to add the words "under God" to the Pledge of Allegiance.

Today, I would like to remember those committed men who organized Leo Council 100 years ago and those who have strived to maintain its membership's vigor and progress. I am proud to congratulate the members, their spouses and families on this momentous occasion.

HONORING CONTRIBUTIONS OF CATHOLIC SCHOOLS

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mr. RYAN of Ohio. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in recognition of House Resolution 23, honoring the contributions and academic excellence of Catholic schools. The week of January 30–February 5 has been designated "Catholic Schools Week" by the National Catholic Educational Association and the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops, to honor the educators, administrators, and over 2.5 million students at Catholic schools across the country for their continued dedication to the educational process.

Catholic Schools Week began in 1974, and has annually promoted a different theme to guide its message. The theme for this year's Catholic Schools Week is "Faith in Every Student," which demonstrates parochial educators' commitment to melding the invaluable process of learning with the guiding principles of Catholicism. And as important as the intellectual development is, it pales in comparison to the lessons of compassion and service to others.

As a beneficiary of a Catholic education, I deeply appreciate the role that the schools play. My Catholic educational experience gave me the desire to learn, the willingness to adapt, and the moral compass by which to lead. This education gave me the basis for the beliefs that continue to guide me today. Children in Catholic schools receive a good education from highly-qualified teachers and strengthen it with a daily commitment to faith, both in school and after the final bell rings.

I wish our nation's Catholic schools continued success, and pledge my support as they continue their ongoing commitment to quality education.

THE MILITARY FAMILIES FINANCIAL SECURITY ACT OF 2005

HON. SUSAN A. DAVIS

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, February 2, 2005

Mrs. DAVIS of California. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to introduce the Military Families Financial Security Act of 2005. This bill will ensure the brave men and women who serve our country will not have to worry about losing critical services their dependent children need.

The men and women who serve in our Armed Forces are everyday heroes. I know about the valor of military families from my own experience as a military wife when my husband was stationed in Japan during the Vietnam War. As a wife and mother in a foreign country with two young children, I observed that many servicemembers were also mothers and fathers and were making the same sacrifices I was. Just as these brave men and women are working to protect our nation, we must likewise protect them and their loved ones through the laws and policies we enact.

In San Diego and around the country, some military families rely on the Supplemental Security Income program (SSI) for means-tested financial assistance. This safety net program is designed to protect qualifying families from poverty and provides access to valuable social services such as Medicaid. Without SSI, some special-needs families would not be able to cover their medical expenses.

Current regulations threaten some military families' eligibility. They face a unique risk of losing benefits due to the way military pay is treated under SSI rules. The Social Security Administration (SSA) considers anything outside basic pay as "unearned income." This method hurts servicemembers and their families since there are more than 30 types of military pay in addition to basic pay. These different pays, considered unearned income, result in higher countable income and affect eligibility. Just a few dollars can make all the difference in the world to these military families.

My legislation would change how the SSA calculates income for SSI eligibility by treating most military compensation as earned income. This simple change will keep families eligible for SSI benefits and simplify the administration of this program.

Last year, in testimony before the Human Resources Subcommittee of the Ways and Means Committee, Social Security Commissioner JoAnne Barnhart stated her support for such a proposal, which was part of the President's FY05 budget.

As Commissioner Barnhart stated, "The provision would treat cash military compensation and civilian wages alike, and thus eliminate the present unfair and disadvantageous treatment of cash military compensation other than basic pay under SSI. The proposal would increase SSI benefits for most military families with disabled children, which are currently about 3,000 families. It would be a significant program simplification in these cases and would have a relatively small program cost of only $2 million over 10 years."

She also mentioned how "determining the difference in the types of military pay is time consuming and error prone, and the guidelines for making such determinations covers 14 pages in SSA's operating instructions."

As a proud member of the House Armed Services Committee, I am committed to improving the quality of life of the men and women who serve our country. This legislation is fair, overdue and demonstrates our nation's appreciation. This legislation will give servicemembers peace of mind from knowing that their duties will not jeopardize their families' eligibility for SSI benefits and related services.

I urge you, Mr. Speaker, and all of my colleagues to pass this critical legislation into law.
